TWENTY-FIRST YFAR. NUMBER 194

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH: TJESDAY, MARCH 17, 1891.

When a Victim was Selected He Was ## INVITED TO DINNER,

Secretary Blains to Governor Nicholls-Di Rudtain Remarks in the Chamber of

Beputies—Comments of the Press,
American, English and Italian.

Washington, March 15.—Secretary Blaine to-night sent the following telegram to Governor Nicholls at New Orleans:
"Department of State, March 15.—Secretary Blaine to-night sent the following telegram to Governor Nicholls at New Orleans:
"Department of State, March 15.—Secretary Blaine to-night sent the following telegram to Governor Nicholls at New Orleans:
"Department of State, March 15.—Secretary Blaine to-night sent the following telegram to Governor Nicholls at New Orleans:
"Department of State, March 15.—Secretary Blaine to-night sent the following telegram to Governor Nicholls at New Orleans:
"Department of State, March 15.—Secretary Blaine to-night sent the following telegram to Governor Nicholls at New Orleans:
"Department of State, March 15.—Secretary Blaine to-night sent the following telegram to Governor Nicholls at New Orleans:
"The Bon Chisciotte della Mancio remarked:
"It is out to demand that instant measures be taken to protect the Italian colony in New Orleans," adding, however, "it is just also to recognize the fact that a similar incident would not occur if the townson the Atlantic littoral were not infested with the excapiley slaves of Europe."
The Popolo Romano, referring to the New Orleans yesterday, were the city of New Orleans yesterday, were the city of New Orleans yesterday, were or infested with the excapiley slaves of Europe."

The Bon Chisciotte della Mancio remarked:
"It has been represented to the President by the minister or Italy accredited to this government, that a similar incident would not occur if the townson the Atlantic littoral were not infested with the excapiley slaves of Europe."

The Bon Chiescotte della Mancio remarked:

"Italy ought to demand that instant measures be taken to protect the Italian colony in New Orleans," adding, however, "it is just also to recognize the fact that a similar incident would not occur if the Atlantic littoral were not infested with the excapiley slaves of Europe."

The Bon C Mafia. This statement Joseph Provenzano this morning most emphatically denies. He said his first impulse was to have Father Manoritta arrested, and he consulted Chief Gaster regarding the matter and was advised to make a public statement concernvised to make a public statement concernStates the most constant protection and States the most constant protection and ing the matter as he thought it would do more good. Proventano says he has not een connected with the Mafia in any manner; on the contrary, he has been the object of their enmity. "About five years ago," says Provenzano, "the Mafia sent me several letters, threatening to kill myme several letters, threatening to kill myself and brothers unless we gave the society $1,000. We did not respond and Jim Caruso shortly afterwards came to me and said he beionged to the society and that we had better pay the money. He said I could do so by going to the old lake and bandaging my head in a red handkerchief and leaving the money on a stump in the swamp near by; I was then to go about my business and they to get the money. I then went to some of my friends, Jung Davis, Pat Meally and Raph Morgan being among the number, and they said not to pay it. the number, and they said not to pay it; that they would go with me in a wagon and see who was there to receive it. Jim Caruso, who was along, said this would not do. 'If you go with a crowd, no one will appear.' I then dropped the matter and told Caruso to have nothing to divisit.

stated that when the verdict was returned Friday two men belonging to the Mafia went to the levee flag pole, where one of them put his foot on the American flag and hoisted the Italian flag. The American flag and hoisted the Italian flag. The American flag was then hoisted under it. A number flag was then hoisted under it. A number were an international issue. The venue mous in requesting the colony to notify hoisted the Italian flag. The Ar flag was then hoisted under it. A of Italians were standing about. asked later why they permitted this, they said they were afraid to interfere

It is reported that Politz' confession to the state's attorney, while largely a discon-nected one, yet gave many important fea-tures regarding the Maffa's doing. He too about the meeting at which it was decided Hennessey should die. In order to settle who should kill him, one slip of paper numbered was placed in a hat with a lot of blanks. Whoever drew the numbered slip was assigned to kill Hennessey.

The Italian consul, Corte, being asked to day if it was true he had expressed approval of the doings of the citizens Saturday, said he had stated he hoped justice day, said he had stated he hoped justice would be meted out to the murderers of Hennessey. He was positive some of the slain were innocent: as to others he would not express himself. Last December Mr. not express himself.

Governor Nicholls has been earnestly considering the matter, but will not make public his reply to Secretary Blaine yet.

Pather Manoritta's Statement.

New Onleans, March 15 .- Father Manoritta was visited by a reporter; this morning and exhibited a letter he had received. The stamp on the envelope shows it had passed through the city postoffice March 9, at 3 p. m. Father Manoritta received it on the system of the Chicago being reported in the Chicago being responsible. A demand for indem not the state of the control of the city would, of course, come from the states must be with the control of the control morning of the 10th. The letter bore the seal of the Maila organization, a skull and cross bones at the top and bottom. The letter advised the reverend father that he had better stay at home and not go to court every day, as his presence there did not do the society any erood. He was told to be-ware. The letter is signed "The Maila Society M. M. C."

the letter to the district attorney, but re-frained from doing so through fear. He further said the jury in the Provenzano case had been entirely too lenient with them. While he deplored the course of the citizens in acting as they did yesterday. similar action in the other case would have proved more effectual in completely eradicating the Mafia society.

Attorney-General Rogers Investigating. NEW OBLEANS, March 16 .- Things have quieted down here now. A telegram from of Italian colonists throughout America Sacretary Blaine was sent direct to Gover. nor Nicholls and referred by him to Attor. ney-General Rogers. Whether a reply has ney-General Rogers. Whether a reply has yet been sent is not known. The attorney-general is making an investigation of Saturday's proceedings. The prison officials say they have recognized some of the persons on the inside of the prison and their names are understood to have been forwarded to the attorney-general. Some indictments may follow as a formality, but so great is the number of people concerned in the killing that it will be impossible to arraign them all or to secure conviction in ter's field. Politz and Comitz were followed to the grave by a single carriage, and in Hagnetto's case the hearse went alone. The others had large and well attended funerals. The vigilance committee is known to be still at work and it is said to morrow will be Detective O'Malley's day of reckoning. The jury will also be attended to, but probably through the courts, as it is proposed to obtain evidence in the case of those who were bribed. One of the jurors is said to have confessed already, The state had evidence saginst several be-After Which he was Done-up, Says Provenzano.

Says Provenzano.

Says Provenzano.

Says Provenzano. The state had evidence against several before the verdict was announced. The grand jury will idict one juror on Tuesday, and more will follow. Foreman J. M. Seligman has gone to Cincinnati.

Secretary Blaine to Governor Nicholls. Washington, March 15. - Secretary Blaine to-night sent the following telegram tailan subjects domiciled in the United States the most constant protection and security for their persons and property, making them amenable on the same basis as our own citizens to the laws of the United States and several states, in their dent deeply regrets that the citizens of New Orieans should have so disparaged the purity and adequacy of their own judicial tribunals, as to transfer to the passionate judgment of a mob, a question that should be adjudged dispassionately and by the settled rules of the law. The government of the United States must give to the subjects of friendly powers that security which it demands for our own jurisdiction. It is the hope of the President that you will co-operate with him in more than the security of the content of the passionate with him in production. jurisdiction. It is the hope of the President that you will co-operate with him in maintaining the obligations of the United States toward Italian subjects who may be within the perils of the present excitement, that further bloodshed and violence may be prevented, and that all offenders against the law may be promptly brought to justice.

James G. Blaine."

This telegram was the result of a conference between the President and secretary this afternoon, Baron Fava, Italian minister, having previously called on Secretary

It is believed here that the better element of the Italians are giad a salutary lesson has been againstered to the Mafia, as they have for years been in dread of it. It is the diplomatic history of the country. Of stated that when the verdict was returned to the matter to right, and the diplomatic history of the country. Of stated that when the verdict was returned stated that when the verdict was returned stated that when the verdict was returned to the country. Of course, I cannot predict the outcome nor discuss it. It is not easy to predict what gence of the mob was not directed against you of the massacre at New Orleans of the Italians as a race, but as a band of supposed murderers who escaped their deserts by the miscarriage of justice. It seems to me the only action to be taken is for the relatives of the dead men to sue the city of New Orleans for damages on the ground that the city failed to furnish was not supposed. I have already demanded from the federal government energetic and prompt that the city failed to furnish was not supposed. that the city failed to furnish proper protection. It way not a race riot in anysense of the word."

Nicholls to Blaine.

from Governor Nicholls, of Louisiana, saying that he will reply to the secretary's telegram by letter.

No further action will be taken by the

No further action will be taken by the federal authorities at Washington until after the receipt of Governor Nicholi's reply to Secretary Blaine's telegram.

Secretary Blaine has received a number of telegrams from itsian organizations in different parts of the country protesting against what they term "an outrage" and demanding that all Italian citizens be properly protected. The matter is almost the sole topic of conversatior in diplomatic circles, and to far as can be ascertained, the general opinion is that the state of the general opinion is that the state of Louisiana and not the United States must day, which stated indignation was growing descending to extreme measures have only over the New Orleans tragedy. It is the only subject talked of, and American resi-dents have emigrated over to Italy and the south of France.

Riva Refuses to be Interviewed.

Telegrams expressive of the indignation

ROME, March 16 .- The papers here make the following comments on the New Orleans tragedy: The Capitan Fracassa says: "The weakin America are at the mercy of the ferocious,

The London News' Comments.

London, March 16. - The News, comment ing on the lynching of the Italians in New Orleans, says: "Italy's indignation is Orleans, says: "Italy's indignation is shared by the whole civilized world. In nearly all such cases in America corruption is at the root of the evil. Americans are at once the most patient and impatient people in the world. When they have grown tired of any grievance, they move to their revence with the swiftness of a hawk."

The Post says Saturday's occurrence at New Orleans will form a deplorable page in American history. American history.

Di Rudini's Explanation.

ROME, March 16.— In the chamber of deputies to-day, Marquis di Rudini, Italian tween this city and Italy relative to the lynching of the Italians in New Orleans on this city are very much excited over the Blame this afternoon received a telegram prominent among them said: "The Italians look at this matter in this light. Their in a verdict of not guilty. The America people do not stand by the laws of their condemn it as much as native born Ameri cans. We simply intend to make an earnes protest against the wholesale butchery o

New Yerk Press Comments.

[Special to THE HERALD-Examiner Dispatch.] that state, would be submitted to con-pass for such action as might be deemed article said: "Such violence would obscure the course of justice, which should now be toward a calm and thorough investigation New York, March 16.—General Riva, of the charge that the jury was brided, the Italian consul in this city, declined to be interviewed concerning the trouble at nessey, if they slip the leash, caunot be placed themselves on a level with the habitual disturbers of the peace whose growing influence they should seek to diminish. As the verdict of acquittal in the Hennessey prosecution left the matter, New Orleans stood on the verge of a social volcano, an dictments may follow as a formality, but so great is the number of people concerned in the killing that it will be impossible to arraign them all or to secure conviction in case they should be arrested.

The Italian consul says a full report of the proceedings was transmitted to the legation at Washington and all further action will be taken through the legation.

A Quiet Sanday in New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 15.—The city wore its usual Sunday aspect and there was no sign of unusual excitement. Crowds continued to visit the scene of the lynching altimused the prison of light and the lynching altimused the prison of light and the lynching altimused the lynching altimused the lynching altimused the lyn did not give up the keys, and when the crowd in all the officers were at their posts. Had they fired at the crowd it would have caused a storming and perhaps the would have caused a storming and perhaps the office it is is in a storming and perhaps the office it is is in a storming and perhaps the would have caused a storming and perhaps the office it is is in a storming and perhaps the office it is is in a storming and perhaps the would have caused a storming and perhaps the world the state of the private the private is in the private business of the mean of the

The Times: "The butchering of the Italian murderers in New Orleans shows how thin and fragile is the wall so laboriously built up between divilized methods and those of primitive barbarism. When laws the purpose, there is often an uncontrolable impulse to return to the primitive plan. It is a method that is to be deplored as auton falled at the trial and the community to promptly resorted to its own rude but terribly effective method of inspiring a wholesome dread in those who had boldly made a trade of murder."

The Tribune: "A scene like that enacted in New Orleans yesterday recalls the bloody work of the old pointer. This wholesaie lynching is a defiance of civilization, of established courts and of public peace. No doubt the provocation was honestly established courts and of public peace. No doubt delight by thousands of citizens who are ordinarily beyond the influence of murderous feelings, but we cannot believe that caim reflecton will justify their horrible frenzy, or that the supremacy of social order and tranquillity has been permanently promoted by the action of the mob."

Lith tragedy!"

"No. Str." answered the mayor belligerently, "I am an American citizen, and I am not afraid of the devil. These men dever a man can had made arrangements of retaril. When I heard of the served hanging. We expected a disagrace munt and had made arrangements to return a day had made arrangements are retail. We served hanging. We expected a disagrace munt and had made arrangements to return. The served hanging. We expected a disagrace munt and had made arrangements to return and had made arrangements are retail. When I heard of the work were all peace able and law abiding. The Italians had to do the same. It was what they did in Italy. The Mafia got too strong for them, and what happened? The sovereign took hold of it—the people. "Fill stand up for land in the work were all peace. The man was deal in t the people shall have passed judgmentupon the action of the citizens of New Orleans in killing the Italian prisoners in the parish jail, it will remain as a remarkable coincidence that almost at the same moment a boat's crew of Americans were saving the lives of fifteen Italian sailors. As the mob moved through the streets of the Crescent City, every step hastening the death of the poor wretches in prison, a boat from Sandy Hook lifesaving station was struggling inch by inch in the face of a gale against the mighty waves to reach the Italian bark Umberto Primo stranded on Romer shoat and upon whose decks clung fifteen men exhausted from cold and exposure. In New Orieans there is walling and gnashing of teeth among the families and friends of the Italian prisoners, and wherever the families and friends of the Italian sailors may be there is or will be great thanksgiving, and slight though it be, there is consolation in the fact that the good deed has the advantage of the bad one by four sacred lives.

the New Orleans tragedy, said President methas instructed Baron de Fava, Italian in the French market and took and we would make him a free man. He said he would do so, as he was tirred of the Maila, having recently been selected on a committee to kill some one.

Provenzano added that Caruso went to the Italians church and took an oath to quit the Maila. He said Charlie Matranga was the chiler of the Maida gang, and that its object was to kill those who were against it. When a victim was selected he was invited.

It is believed here that the better element on the level of the land and any and all reparation it of the Italians are gaid a salutary lesson as been administered to the assistant secretary of state.

New A Telegram to Builet.

New Orleans tragedy, said President Harrison had recognized the right of Italians in the United States to protection minister at Washington, to present a vehement profound regret at the occurrence of the land charged the governor of Louisan and and charged the governor of Louisans to guard the Italians in the United States to protection minister at Washington, to present a vehement performent and and charged the governor of Louisans to the authorities, and that the best to Secretary Blaine and carnestly protested against the said charged the governor of Louisans to guard the Italians in the United States to protection minister at Washington, to present a vehement performent and and charged the governor of Louisans to guard the Italians in the United States to protection of the mob in New Orleans, and a charged the governor of Louisans to guard the Italians in the United States to protection of the mob in New Orleans and to bring the authorities, and that the A. G. Porter, the child and charged the governor of Louisans to the sain interpretate to the Italians in the United States to precion and and charged the governor of Louisans to guard the Italians in the United States to precion and and charged the governor of Louisans to guard the Italians in the United States to precion an copies of two telegrams which passed be- to all indictments pending in section B of several Italians already acquitted by an American jury, and demand intervention by the home government.

The answer was: "Your cablegram received. I have already demanded from the federal country for the massacre of the Italian prisoners in have been passing between the cabinet and New York, March 16.—The Italians in the Italian minister at Washington. The Washington, March 16. — Secretary New Orleans tragedy. One of the most nation and a thrist for reprisals in some nation and a turnst for reprisals in some form. An English visitor was mistaken for an American and had a narrow escape from being mobbed. It is expected the sub-ject will be brought up in the chamber of deputies. In the talk on the streets and in deputies. In the talk on the streets and in public places strong protests are uttered against any representation of Italy at the coming American exhibition.

Count Rasponi, of the Italian legation in Parls, expressed himself to-day in very tarms on what he called the cruel strong terms on what he called the crustrong terms on what he called the crual massacre of his countrymen. He said Italy could not afford to let such an outrage on humanity go without redress and that it was a stain on the American people that could never be effaced. He added that in his own personal opinion, it ended all prospect of Italy taking part in the Chicago exposition.

Among the Italian residents of London there is much excitement on the subject and the killing is fiercely denounced.

NEW YORK, March 16 .- The Tribune has from New Orleans Interesting special in terviews with William Parkerson, the leader of the regulators, and others. Mr. be interviewed concerning the trouble at New Orieans. He, however, announced controlled until innocent blood is shed, that as vice-consul, and as a representative of the italian government, he greatly regretted the unfortunate occurrence.

Americans Emigrating From Sicily.

New Yorks, March 16.—Le Cod Ralio published a telegram from Palermo, Sicily, to-day, which stated indignation was growing descending to extreme measures have only ing. He felt it was the most terrible duty he had ever undertaken, but it was the opinion of himself and others that the law had miscarried. When they addressed the growd at the square they said they were prepared- to do whatever the people de-Italian constitue to be received by second interest of the sountry.

The Riforma's Opinion.

Rome, March 16.—The Riforma says regarding the New Orleans matter: "The elements hostile to Italy, above all the elements hostile to Italy, above all the seriously reflects upon the civilization of the city, and is only worthy of a lawless border community that is forced to take the administration justice unto its own hands the machinery of the courtains the machinery of the quite the property of the quite courtains the sired. The populace shouted, "Come on."

Wassington, March 16 .- During the [Special to THE HERALD-Examiner Dispatch.] first excitement among the Italian residents New York, March 16,-Whatever may be of the United States, Baron Fava yestersaid when the second and cooler thoughts of day sent to the Italian consul-general at New York the following telegram: learn from the papers that excitement is killing the Italian prisoners in the parian prevailing in the Italian colony on account all, it will remain as a remarkable coincidence that almost at the same moment a boat's crew of Americans were saving the lives of fifteen Italian sailors. As the mob behavior show themselves in these circumstances worthy of a civilized country."

It is understood similar instructions were sent to all the other Italian consuls in the United States.

> Mrs. Jackson Refused a Writ of Habens Corpus. London, March 16 .- Her majesty's high court of justice to day refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus to compel E. H. Jackson, of Clitheroe, to produce his wife in court. The court held that if the woman was ill treated she had a remedy in an aplication for protection which she could make before a magistrate. Jackson, it will be remembered, on March S abducted his wife, a wealthy lady in her own right, as she was leaving the church of Clitheroe, near Manchester, taking her to a house at Blackburn, where he withstood a siege and threatened assault upon the house by a mob headed by some of Mrs. Jackson's re-atives who were opposed to her husband's Sir Joseph Hazalgetie, the eminent engi-

Silver Parchases.

WASHINGTON, March 16.-Three hundred and seventy-seven thousand ounces of silver were purchased to day at prices ranging from .9980 to .9950.

Guatemala Accepts the Invitation; and 8 per cent, interest and the forfeiture of both principal and interest in case of overcharge, passed. was received by the department of state this morning from Lieutenant Scrivenn, United States army, special commissioner to the Central American states in the interest of the World's Columbian exposition, in which he states the government of Guatemala accepts the invitation to par-ticipate in the exposition and has given as to all indictments pending in section B of the criminal court against the Italians implicated in the Hennessey assarsination. This releases Mastranca, Incardonia and Marchesi, the boy. The indictments in section A still hold Sanzerri, Patorono, John Caruso, Natalo and Pietzo.

In which he same in which he exposition and has given as public will be represented at the exposition by a complete display showing its resources, products and industries, and also present for exhibition articles of great historical value and interest.

The McKinley Rill Test Snits Advanced. WASHINGTON, March 15 .- The supreme court to-day advanced the cases of Boyd, the massacre of the Italian prisoners in Sutton & Co. and Sternback & Co., of New New Orioans did not become generally York, against the United States, and of known in that city until this morning. It Marshall Field & Co. against the colleccreated a profound sensation, and cables tion of customs at Chicago, and assigned them for argument the first Monday of the next term, but with leave to submit them, printed briefs, before the first Monday April, if that be preferred.

These are suits brought to test the con-stitutionality of the McKinley bill.

On motion of Commissioner Goff, the supreme court to-day dismissed the appeals of the forty-five Chinamen whose return to China was ordered, because the records in the cases were not printed. Twelve of these cases remain, and two of them were reassigued for argument the first Monday of next April. The decision in all the of next April. The decision in all the twelve will be governed by the decision in

The Trial of Captain Henry Catley. OMAHA, March 16 .- The court martial to try Captain Henry Catley, company F, second infantry, on the charge of cowardice him to take command of the company when it was ordered to go after the bostiles as he was not feeling well. On other occasions was not receing wen. On other occasions when danger was apparent Catley reported himself not well and unable to command, but when the duty was not dangerous he was on hand. Adjourned until to-morrow.

A Wealthy Han Spicides CHICAGO, March 16 .- Charles S. Gardiner, a prominent and wealthy lumber dealer, suicided to-day. He has been in ill bealth for sometime past.

walking watch at 1 a.m. was: Hughes,

Cuicago, March 16.-Dennis Cramer was defeated in a suit in the justice's court today. He had expected Frank DeHunt.

slightly wounded but the others may die

NEW YORK, March 16,-Before the sen ate committee investigating the Sugar trust to-day, William Dick could only ac-count for the difference between the $1,000,000 at which he valued his refinery and the $2,762,000 which he received for it from the trust, by saying it must have been for the good will of the business. He could not, he said, remember the details of National Home for Printers Site. DENVER, March 16 .- A site for the national home for printers at Colorado Springs has been selected and construction will be at once commenced.

burgh Castle was sunk off Ushant by col- INTO THE CITY OF PISAOUA.

with poisoning his wife, mother in law, grandmother, infant and a friend to whom he owed mo

The Reciprocity Policy Indersed WASHINGTON, March 16 .- A committee,

The London Baccaret Cases. London, March 16 .- The trial of the bac caret cases will probably be of short duration. It is stated that in consequence of the wish of the Prince of Wales, there will be no cross examination and no attempt to prove the allegations. An ample appology will be tendered in court, and the jury will simply assess the damages which Sir Will-iam Gordon Cumming sees fit to accept.

ported this afternoon that the mob to day hanged Mrs. Wiggington, whose husband and sons are charged with possoning Ferguson and Watt. A dispatch to-night from Mount Sterling says no attempt at lynching was made; that the prison is well guarded. Later to night it is learned a mob visited the residence of Mrs. Winnington Saturday night and placing a rope about her neck threatened to hang her unless she told all. After some of this formula persons have been received at the navy department in regard to the condition of sussion, she told the story of the polar

The poison was put in the coffee while breakfast was being prepared. It is expected an attempt will be made to lynch the old man and boys now in jail.

Rev. Howard Macoucary Guilty CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 16 .- The Epis copal church which tried Rev. Howard Macqueary on the charge of heresy, to day voted guilty, 3 to 2. On the question of ponishment Revs. Gallagher and Smyth voted to let him go soot free. Mr. Aves thought he should be suspended, while Morgan and Putoam voted for expulsion. The verdict means that Macqueary will leave the church. The opinion of the court is not yet made public. Macqueary is tor of the Episcopal church at Canton, Ohio. The cause of the arraignment for heresy was a book he wrote in which he denies the immaculate conception and physical resur-rection of Christ. He held, in brief, that God's spirit entered Christ and made him a Tench Gardening in the United States. WASHINGTON, March 15 .- The tug Triana, at Pine Ridge, began to-day. Lieutemant which was sent to the rescue of the Galena Turner testified that the captain ordered and Nina, also went ashore last night and which was sent to the rescue of the Galena two negroes in a dance house, he was shot it is reported to-night she is in a dangerous position. The revenue outlers were unable to-day to do anything for any of the wrecked crafts because of high ser

The consus bureau has issued a special bulletin on truck gardening in the United States. Entirely distinct from market gardening, upwards of $100,000,000 are invested in this industry, the annual product reaching the value of $78,517,000 on ner, a prominent and wealthy lumber leader, suicided to-day. He has been in ill sealth for sometime past.

The Walking Match.

The Walking Match.

New York, March 16.—The score in the mules and $8,971,000 worth of implements. Nearly 75 per cent. of the truck produced in the United States comes from a belt of counties along the Atlantic coast from southern Georgia and Alabama, along the 187 miles 7 laps; Howarth, 124 miles and 8 laps; Cartwright, 126 miles and 9 laps; Messier, 124 miles and 4 laps; Moore, 121 miles and 3 Mississippi valley from the gulf to Chicago, and from the celery district of cage, and from ... Michigan and Ohio.

A Curse on the People of Louisiana Cuicago, March 16.-The excitement day. He had expected Frank Deriod aroused by the New Orleans incident seems Ernest Fuchs and John Weber to testify in his behalf, but they failed to show up. To-night he met them in a saloon and without city. The committee appointed last night a word shot all three. Weber is only has decided to call a mass meeting to dearoused by the New Orleans incident seems The committee appointed last night has decided to call a mass meeting to de-mand financial reparation and that the ring leaders of the mob be tried for their crime. The local Italian paper devoted much space to bitter editorial denunciation of the lynch ers and calling for retribution. Among other things it says: "A curse upon the people of Louisiana and may they and their de-scendants suffer a thousand deaths and a thousand times feel the sorrow that to-day afflicts the widowed wives, sisters and children."

children."

At the weekly meeting of the Methodist ministers to-day resolutions were introduced deprecating the tardiness of justice in New Orieans and other cities, and deciaring lynch law abhorent to the spirit of our government. The resolutions caused a heated debate, in which lively and divergent views were envised. vergent views were expressed. Kev. Frank Bristol thought it a shame that ministers should hesitate to take a bold stand on such a question. On the other hand, Rev. Dr. Bland stresucously opposed the resolutions, going so far as to say "When the law will

A BOMBARDED TOWN

PRICE: FIVE CENTS.

The Esmeralda and Blanco Pour Shot and Shell

A Scene of Benth and Destruction-Men Women and Children While Fleeing to the Mountains Are Killed.

[Special to Ten Henand-Examiner Disputch.] New York, March 15 .- A letter received in the city to-day describes the frightful scenes during the bombardment of Pisaqua, representing the Boston Boot and Shoe club and Blanco began bombarding the town at and New England Shoe and Leather asso. 10 a.m. and kept it up for six hours. A perfect shower of shot and shell fell upon the fect shower of shot and shell fell upon the sories of resolutions recently adopted by those organizations endorsing the administration's reciprocity policy and urging the extension to their own industry. Secretary Blaine informed the committee he would do all he could to see that their in their made about crying for their mothers and received for the town. Little children ran about crying for their mothers and received for the mothers and received for the mothers and received for the town. twy Blaine informed the committee he would do all he could to see that their in the would do all he could to see that their in proposed treaties were not overlooked when the proposed treaties were formulated.

Geraldine Ulmay is Engagement.

Special to This Harald—Examiner Cable.

Loxdon, March 15.—Miss Geraldine Ulmay the American actress, is not to well Lord Craven after all. Her engagement to Ivan Carvit, the well-known musical composer, was publicly announced from the stage of the Lyric theatre last night. Lord Craven's friends are surprised.

In the House of Commons.

Loxdon, March 16.—Smith, government the leader, in the commons to day announced the government had come to the decision that no woman representatives of labor or of the royanizations could be placed upon the labor commissions.

Ferguson, political scoretary of foreign affairs, said the government had been advised indirectly of the seizure of the British South African company's steamer. Countess of Carnarno, by the Portuguese, in the house of lords, Lord Sailsbury, and it appeared from printed reports that the steamer was landing arms in Portuguese. In the Busses in the Mississippi Leves.

New Onleans, March 16.—A crevasse occurred this morning in the levee at United States Senator White's plantation. The break is sixty feet wide.

The London Baccarat Cases.

Lordon, March 16.—A tread the province of the sixty population of the commander of the Blanco commissions.

The London Baccarat Cases.

Lordon, March 16.—A tread the mountain Lines and the province was a landing arms in Portuguese and shot. Suddenly the cry of the sixty population and the labor of the mountain Lines twenty would be and the province and the province when were sending the times were sending the province and found the province of the province and the province and found the province and foun terests were not overlooked when the pro-to their mothers, and more than one was felled to the ground by the burning of TORONTO, March 16 .- It is understood the government is considering what it should do with such men as Edward Farrer. A firm of Toronto solicitors has been at work investigating his conduct and some weeks sgo they advised the government as well within the law relating to high treason. As the law now is, they said, there would be no difficulty in securing his conviction on high treason. Whether the government will go this far is yet to be de-Minnesota's Usury Bill Passas.

Sr. Paul, March 16.—In the senate this afternoon the usury bill, providing for a and 8 per cent. interest and the forfeiture of both principal and interest in case of overcharge, passed.

Mrs. Wiggington Was Not Lynched.

Lexinoton, Ky., March 16.—It was reported this afternoon that the mob to-day hanged Mrs. Wiggington, whose husband and sons are charged with posening ferguson and Watt. A dispatch to-night from Mount Sterling says no attempt at lynching was made; that the prison is well guarded.

oning. the United States steamship Galena and while the tugs Nina and Triana. The Nina is the togs Nina and Triana. The Nina is cutirely out of the water and is thought to be only slightly damaged. It is thought the Nina can be saved and that the Galena may be floated. A dispatch from Lieutenant Commander Lyon, in command of the Triana, states his vessel can be saved if proper means are promptly employed. The efficiers and crew were still on the vessel when the telegram was sent.

Assistant Secretary Soley, who is now acting as secretary of the navy, said this morning a court of inquiry would be appointed to investigate all the circumstances attending the accidents to the three vessels with a view to placing the responsibility therefor and determine the necessity for a concentration. sity for a general court-martial.

Paris, March 16.-The Journal Official publishes a dispatch from Tonquin stating that William Reable, agent of the Chinese customs house, and his wife, British sub-jects, have been nurdered near Buiette. An Officer Shot by Negroes.

Houston, Tex., March 16 .- While Officer James F. Feon was attempting to arrest and instantly killed, and a by-sta Frank Michels, mortally wounded.

About the Treaty with Brazil. Washixoron, March 16.—The department of state is informed that the rumors that the Brazilian government does intend to carry out the recent reciprocity agree-ment with the United States are discreaited by the action of the authorities at Ric de Janiero in issuing instructions to off. cials throughout the country concerning the free admission of merchandise from the Explosion in an Arsenal. Carno, March 16 .- A terrible disaster cocurred to-day at the arsenal of Oudurman. It appears about a hundred Dervishes were killed by the explosion there, which destroyed immonse stores of ammunition and shattered the arsenal building and every thing in the immediate neighborhood.

The Crew of the Triana Resented. New Harrono, Mass., March 16 .- Two revenue cutters arrived here this morning with the officers and crew of the Triana wrecked on Cuttyhunk. The officers of these boats think the Triana, Galena and Nina are domed to be broken up, as heavy seas are now washing over then Nashville Insane Asylum Victims. NASSVILLE, Tenn., March 16.-The num per of dead by the insane asylum fire has increased to eleved. One more inmate is missing and is believed to be in the ruins.

Julge John R. Brady Dead. New Your, March 16 .- Judge John R Brady, of the supreme court, is dead. He was stricken with paralysis last night and died this morning.

Gave Himself Up.

CINCINNATI, March 16.-William A. Stevens, a well known dry goods man, gave himself up to the police this afternoon, say-Reciprocity with Spain.

Parts, March 16.—The Temps publishes a dispatch from its Madrid correspondent saying the Spanish cabinet's project of reciprocity with the United States contemplates should hesitate to take a bold stand on such a question. On the other hand, Rev. Dr. Fred Woods, preprietor of the shooting park on Gienway avenue. It is stated to take care of a lot of nurderers it is the place with a Mrs. Armstrong, and the time the people did something." The matter was finally referred to a committee.